GSL Energy Supplies Lithium Solar Storage System to Projects in French Polynesia Published on 3 Aug 2022

Abstract - Developing island economies, such as French Polynesia, are heavily reliant on imported goods. Shipping materials around the world is very energy intensive and contributes to global environmental pollution. A system for the local manufacturing of sustainable building materials offers numerous environmental and economic incentives.

The first thing that I have to set the record straight on is the naming. The official name of the country is French Polynesia when in 1957, the islands were reconstituted into a French Overseas Territory. The name The Islands of Tahiti is often used as an alternate to describe the uniting of five distinct island chains.. However, I'll be the first to admit that it does ...
