

Who represents the industrial sector in Kuwait?

The industrial sector is represented by the Kuwait Chamber of Commerce and Industry, which has over 79,000 registered members. Investors in the industrial sector in Kuwait are represented by the Kuwait Industries Union (KIU), whose membership consists of around 270 industrial firms licensed by the PAI.

Who owns the oil industry in Kuwait?

Kuwait took over ownership of its oil industry in the late 1970s. The government of Kuwait owns and controls all development of the oil sector. The Prime Minister heads the Supreme Petroleum Council (SPC), which oversees Kuwait's oil sector and sets oil policy.

How can Kuwait improve its oil industry?

In the downstream oil sector, Kuwait will need to ensure that its refineries, through upgrades, such as desulphurization and related secondary processing improvements, meet global demand for clean and high-quality oil products. Kuwait's economy is heavily dependent on oil-export revenues, with the share of revenue in GDP topping 40% in 2017.

Is Kuwait a natural gas exporter or importer?

Today, Kuwait relies almost exclusively on oil products and natural gas to meet its energy needs, with each fuel accounting for about a half of total primary energy consumption. But while Kuwait is a major oil exporter, it is a net importer of liquefied natural gas, due to underdevelopment of its gas reserves.

Does Kuwait use oil to generate electricity?

Kuwait relies on oil and natural gas to generate electricity, with oil accounting for 64% of the generating capacity in 2015. Given Kuwait's dependence on oil-export revenues, there are significant financial incentives to move away from burning oil for domestic power use.

Who controls the oil sector in Kuwait?

The government of Kuwait owns and controls all development of the oil sector. The Prime Minister heads the Supreme Petroleum Council (SPC), which oversees Kuwait's oil sector and sets oil policy. The other members of the council (six ministers and six representatives from the private sector) all serve three-year terms, and are selected by the Emir.
