How can It be that I produce 3000 energy cells/h but I have to wait for hours for every single energy cell to arrive on my build storage because instead of moving it from the station inventory it is traded by some far off trader - if I am lucky. There MUST be a way to automate this. Otherwise I will have to constantly micromanage every single station I own

I built a station with 200,000 container storage and the station produces silicon wafers, energy cells, and smart chips. The station has some solid storage for raw silicon, ofc. The logical overview has the container storage divided like this: Energy Cells - 39,602 max Silicon Wafers - 7,920 max Smart Chips - 3,168 max Any idea how the game is calculating this ratio, ...

Putting aside that energy cells aren't the best money maker, you really want to build your Energy Cell production in Great Reef as it has 128% or Sanctuary of Darkness which has 174% solar. If you have access to the sectors past them there's a 271% solar which is 3rd best in the game after Avarice and Mercury.

Hello everyone. I've a massive Solar power plant in and built a little energy cell trading station in Windfall IV. To be clear, trading station has dock and storage modules. Also manager is assigned. But I can't use "repeating orders" behavior to transfer energy cells between stations or find energy cells in "Select trade wares" tab.

Avarice system has incredible sunlight value = 1390% (max possible I seen aside is 200%) and what I recall from x3 that influence drastically on Energy cell production. So few questions: 1) Is it actual for x4 that solar stations benefit from better sunlight? 2) Do player stations able to withstand tides? And optional: if
